1. How do you define privacy?

2. Why does privacy matter to people using libraries? How would you feel if the topics you research in the library or online were made public?

3. What rights does the 4th Amendment to the US Constitution protect?
   - Guarantees the right to a jury trial
   - Ensures freedom of speech
   - Guards against unreasonable search and seizure
   - Assures the right to bear arms

4. Have you ever "googled" your name? What or how much did you find? Were you surprised by anything?
5. To what extent do you worry about the following privacy invasions?

Internet stalking, bullying, or harassment

□ Very concerned

□ Somewhat concerned

□ Not at all concerned

Public disclosure of photos or details about your life

□ Very concerned

□ Somewhat concerned

□ Not at all concerned

Identity theft or credit card fraud

□ Very concerned

□ Somewhat concerned

□ Not at all concerned

Government surveillance of your behavior

□ Very concerned

□ Somewhat concerned

□ Not at all concerned

Corporate distribution of your personal information

□ Very concerned

□ Somewhat concerned

□ Not at all concerned

Other, please specify: ________________________________
6. What law, enacted in 2001, gave U.S. law enforcement agencies greater access to individuals’ personal and business records?

7. Imagine a world where everything you ever did was recorded and on the Internet. Would knowing this prevent you from doing certain things? How would it change your choices or actions?

8. After watching the Choose Privacy Week video, what parts or messages from the film did you find most powerful or interesting?